

After graduation, you will receive the "pergamena," the final graduation diploma. If you will be contacted before graduation for an official delivery ceremony, please be there, because the ceremony is organized just for you.

If you won't attend at the ceremony, you can come to the Office, making an appointment first.