Ricercante
Applicants have to attach to the form the following documents:
- copy of the passport or valid ID card;
- a certificate issued by the Partner institution stating they are regularly enrolled for the academic year 2017-2018 in their home institution;
- English language certificate (if any);
- Learning Agreement;
- motivation letter;
- training/research project (only for Ph.D.);
- proof of socio-economic disadvantaged background (in case it is available) and/or disability (if it applies).

The Learning Agreement may include a list of the courses the student intends to carry out during the mobility, if any, and/or credits for the Ph.D. thesis work.

The application form and all its annexes must be delivered by email to Unicas International Relations Office (international.office@unicas.it) with subject “KA107-TUNISIA-UNICAS: NAME OF THE STUDENT”.

Applications received after the deadline or delivered in different ways will be rejected.

UNICAS doesn’t take any responsibility for non-receipt of the application according to the established procedure and on time, nor for negligence of third parties, accidental occurrences or force majeure.

Art. 7 – Selection committee
The selection committee is appointed by the Unicas Rector. It may include representatives of the Partner Institutions, who participate in the selection of students who applied for mobility from their own institution.

Art. 8 – Evaluation criteria and applications assessment
Only those candidates whose applications have been properly submitted will be considered eligible for the assessment. The selection committee will examine the documentation received and will draw up a ranking according to the following criteria.
Candidates will get a score of maximum of 50 points, as follows:
- up to 10 points for English level;
- up to 30 points for the learning agreement and the training/research project proposed;
- up to 10 points for motivation.

The selection committee might decide to interview the candidates to assess their motivation and language proficiency through some distance communication tool (e.g., Skype or video conferencing).

The final selection decision will consider also cross-cutting evaluation criteria such as gender balance, equal opportunities and participation of disadvantaged groups (disabled students, economically disadvantaged students).

The evaluation committee will communicate to UNICAS International Relations Office the final ranking of the applicants, so that the Office can draw up the list of beneficiaries.

Within 30 days from the deadline for submitting applications, the final ranking of the selected students will be published on the UNICAS website. The publication will constitute official communication. All the applicants will receive an e-mail informing on the selection results at the e-mail address used to send the application.

Within ten calendar days from the publication of the rankings, student beneficiaries of the grants must confirm acceptance of the scholarship by giving notice by email to the address l.morone@unicas.it.
Art. 1 – Aims of Erasmus + International Credit Mobility
Within the “International Credit Mobility” (ICM) of the Erasmus + Programme (Key Action 1 – Learning Mobility of Individuals) the Higher Education Institutions may allow mobility actions from and towards the Partner Countries, with which have signed an Erasmus + Interinstitutional Agreement.
