

A guide for students

Each student takes full responsibility for following all the instructions contained in this document.

The University of Cassino and Southern Lazio reserves the right to turn away students who do not follow such instructions.

The University of Cassino and Southern Lazio reserves the right to inhibit, as a precaution, the possibility of attending courses in presence to those students who may reiterate such behaviour and put their own health and that of others at risk.

Students:

- 1) Attend lessons in presence by simply booking online through their own Gomp account. In order to trace contacts, booking is strictly personal, so it is not transferable to third parties. An identity check of students is also requested at main entrances and in classrooms.
- 2) When booking for the first time, students must fill in a self-declaration form to access university premises and keep it with them in case of regular inspections.
- 3) Measure their own body temperature daily and avoid accessing university premises if their temperature is not below 37.5°C and/or if they have respiratory or flu symptoms.
- 4) Wear surgical masks before accessing university premises and keep them on constantly, covering nose and mouth in every indoor environment.
- 5) Keep a distance of at least one metre from others, also in queues and in hold-ups.
- 6) Disinfect hands carefully with hydroalcoholic solutions at main entrances and in classrooms; those who wear gloves must disinfect their gloves the same way they disinfect their hands.

- 7) Respect the guided passages inside university premises and avoid damaging and smearing signs.
- 8) Minimize their stay inside university premises by asking in advance information about the location of their classroom and leaving the building right after lessons.
- 9) In classrooms sit on the countersigned seats, maintain a correct posture and keep the prescribed interpersonal distancing in the classroom the entire time.
- 10) Respect the safety instructions given by professors and the university personnel present in the offices.
- 11) Use the “Immuni App” wherever possible.

Finally, students are obliged to have a thorough knowledge of the protocol for the management of the confirmed and suspected cases of Covid-19 in classrooms, available on the university site, spread it among colleagues and facilitate its application.

Professors and the entire personnel of the University of Cassino and Southern Lazio are responsible for monitoring compliance with the regulation regarding students, the instructions listed above and the other instructions contained in the present document as well as reporting misbehaviour caused by students.

If requested, students must show professors or the university personnel present on campus:

- one’s own identification card
- one’s own self-certification form

-booking of lessons in presence

-booking of other activities (apprenticeships, libraries, exams ..)
