Since a mutual interest for developing collaboration and exchange in the field of Mechanical Engineering, with the aim to improve the level of the superior education and research,

Both the institutions have agreed to establish a program of teaching and research cooperation in the followings terms:

Article 1: A teaching and research collaboration will be promoted in the field of Mechanical engineering. This collaboration will be based on equal and mutual advantages and it can be extended by mutual agreement to others areas when the available funds as well as the acquired experience by the researchers of two University Departments are identified as of interest.

Article 2: With the purpose to reach the objectives in the article 1, the collaboration can be achieved in the following ways:
a) Visit exchange of teachers and researchers;
b) Visit exchange of students;
c) Meetings, seminars and courses in the field defined in the Article 1;
d) Exchange of programs of study, scientific papers, and regular publications;
e) Activity for joint research projects

Article 3: For the exchange of students of point b of Article 2 both University Departments will encourage the students to apply for proper kinds of scholarship and set counterpart side as the anticipant host.

Article 4: In agreement with his own laws and rules, each University Department will assure to the guests on his own territory any form of assistance and facilitation for the fulfilment of the activities related with this agreement.
Article 5: Each University Department will nominate a coordinator that will take care of the aspects related with the activities of the present agreement. For Cassino the coordinator is Prof. Marco Ceccarelli, for SIE the coordinator is Prof. Wu Licheng.

Article 6: Each University Department agrees to grant the dispensation to any tax (register, registration, annuity) to the participants of the activities of the present agreement.

Article 7: This agreement can be extended in the future to fields other then those mentioned in the Article 1.

Article 8: This agreement will be valid for a period of one year. It can be renewed year by year except if one of the parts intends to cancel it. In this case a cancellation advice should be notified at least three months before the expiration.

Article 9: In case of controversies in the interpretation and execution of the stipulated agreement, they will be solved with an agreement of both the parts.

This agreement is written in two original copies in English, both having the same content and validity.
