This agreement is established to promote collaborative academic and cultural interchange between the University of Cassino and Southern Lazio, Italy, and the Tampere University of Technology, Finland.

Wishing to enhance relations between our institutions and develop academic and cultural interchange in the areas of entrepreneurial education, technology transfer and other related activities, the University of Cassino and Southern Lazio (Italy), and the Tampere University of Technology (Finland) hereby agree to cooperate and work together towards the promotion of university students and graduates' entrepreneurship.

The areas of cooperation will include any program offered at each institution, which is determined to be desirable and feasible for the achievement of these objectives. However, any specific program shall be subject to the availability of funds and the mutual agreement of the institutions. Such programs may include:

a. Exchange of department members
b. Exchange of administrative staff
c. Joint study programmes
d. Joint research projects
e. Joint cultural programs

The terms of such mutual assistance and cooperation shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing by the appropriate responsible officers of the parties prior to the implementation of any particular program or activity.

Neither party claims, by virtue of this agreement, any right or legal interest in existing or pending intellectual property, including patents, trademarks, copyright, design patents or other rights of the other party or in any intellectual property that might result from the other party's prior activities.

This agreement will be effective upon its mutual endorsement from the 1st of March, 2017 and remain in effect for a period of five (5) years. Renewal may be negotiated during the final year of the agreement. In the event that the agreement is not renewed, any research or related activities in progress at the point of termination will continue until the agreed scope of work has been completed. However, the agreement may be terminated by either Party at the end of any academic year upon sixty (60) days written notice. The agreement may also be amended or extended by mutual consent of the Parties.

Each Party remains liable for all risks of personal injury and property damage caused by negligent acts or omissions of that Party, but subject to all applicable immunities granted by law to other Party. Each Party shall be deemed as an independent contractor and not liable for acts of the other, nor shall they be liable for any other participants in the exchange.

Both universities acknowledge the importance of confidentiality and intellectual property related to joint activities. If either Party wishes to disclose information it considers to be confidential or proprietary to the other Party, the Parties will enter into a written non-disclosure agreement.

Any concerns about the terms of this Agreement shall be solved through mutual efforts.

Both parties declare and agree that they practice non-discrimination and hence favour equal opportunities. This agreement is to be executed in 2 copies.
